

EL BORDE

by Norrel Robertson, M.W.

The 2018 El Borda comes from the vineyard El Llano del Sastre in the village of Venta del Pino. It's an organically farmed three-hectare plot planted with 1,500 vines per hectare on very white, limestone-rich soils at 800 meters in altitude. The wine keeps varietal character and notes of Mediterranean herbs but with the freshness of the higher altitude zone and a cooler year.

It matured in used 500-liter French oak barrels for 10 months.

It's ripe and juicy, powerful, with grainy tannins and ripe fruit flavors.
